Sonoma Valley High School Dance Procedures and Guidelines

All participants are expected to follow the dance guidelines below. If you fail to adhere to the dance procedures, you will be timed out from the dance. If you are caught violating the procedures again, you will be removed from the dance.

Dance Guidelines:

- No grinding or rubbing another person in a sexual manner
- No wrapping of one's legs around another person
- No moshing or body surfing at any time
- No body parts other than feet may be touching the floor
- Student Leadership will monitor and remind students of the dance guidelines. School administration will make the final decision of what is "inappropriate"

Overall Procedures:

- Backpacks and liquids/food will not be allowed into the dance. All purses will be searched
- All attendees of the dance are subject to alcohol screening if use is suspected
